

Liberal Government Returns To Power in Saskatchewan

Social Credit Forces Win Only Two Seats In House; Liberal Party Returns 36 Out Of Possible 50 Members; C.C.F. Gains 5

Social Credit forces in Saskatchewan made a dismal showing in the Saskatchewan elections as the Liberal Government was swept back into power with an overwhelming majority. Lacombe citizens celebrated the Liberal victory when close to 20 cars drove through downtown streets late at night, honking horns and celebrating the event. The Liberal Government was returned to power with 36 seats, C.C.F. receiving 10, Independents 2 and Social Crediters 2. Conservatives elected not one member to the House. Close to 400,000 ballots were cast in the election, one of the shortest and bitterest campaigns in Saskatchewan's political history. Social Crediters are credited with receiving approximately 65,000 votes over the whole Province. Fifty seats were at stake in the election. The Liberals showed a loss of 11 seats, with the C.C.F. gaining five seats. Independents 2 and Social Crediters 2.

Tossed Over Car, Local Man Unhurt

Art Perkins miraculously escaped serious injury on Tuesday afternoon when the horse which he was riding was hit by a car on the Gull Lake road, four miles west of town. The horse was thrown 22 feet by the impact, and Mr. Perkins himself was tossed completely over the roof of the car to land on the road behind unhurt except for a few cuts and bruises.

Mr. Perkins, accompanied by his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Cuff Jamieson, Harold Jamieson and Carl Bennett, all of whom were jogging along the side of the road leading four pack horses at the time of the accident. Dick Scholten of Park's Garage here was travelling east, towards the party when he came over Stout's Hill to run into the horse ridden by Perkins.

The horse received a shattered leg and broken hip and was dispatched as soon as a firearm was available.

The front of the car was badly smashed, headlights, fenders and radiator front being crushed in. Mr. Scholten received a few cuts on his face when the windshield before him shattered.

The horseback party were en route to Jasper, where Mr. Jamieson has been employed as tourist guide for some years. The party will continue their trip after the accident is officially closed.

Many Attend Final Young People's Service

The season's concluding Young People's service was held Sunday evening with a splendid attendance of young folk, both in the choir and congregation, at St. Andrew's United Church. Miss D. Carver read the scripture, and a delightful quartet was rendered by Francis Hall, Margaret Watt, Betty DeLong and Betty Wilks. Rev. A. L. Carr spoke on "Ideals," which he said were necessary in anyone's life to maintain morale, cultivate character and achieve purpose in life.

Special services for the Young People will begin again the first Sunday in September.

Board of Trade Endorses Action Of Executive

Petition Circularized Through District For Signature; Protest "Restrictive Legislation"

A largely attended supper meeting of the Lacombe and District Board of Trade, held on Tuesday evening, gave endorsement to the action of the executive in preparing and circulating the following petition, addressed to the Hon. William Aberhart, Premier of Alberta:

"Whereas your petitioners have been reliably informed that the Chartered Bank of Canada, having branches in the Province of Alberta, are seriously considering the advisability of either withdrawing from the Province or from many points in the Province due to the increased taxes which the banks are now required to pay and the restrictive legislation being passed by the Government of Alberta whereby the banks are finding it impossible to carry out the various functions of the performance of which they were incorporated.

"And whereas your petitioners are firmly convinced that the said banks are providing a valuable and essential service and that their withdrawal or any curtailment of their facilities would seriously affect all citizens of the Province of Alberta.

"And whereas any withdrawal of the banks would seriously affect the revenue now being derived by the cities, towns and municipalities from the said banks.

"Now therefore your petitioners would urge the Government of the Province of Alberta give serious consideration to the situation which may arise and by immediate legislation relieve the said banks from the intolerable burden under which they are now attempting to carry on business in the said Province.

Explaining the action of the executive, President J. S. McCormick also read the petition, which after some discussion was given unanimous endorsement by the Board of Trade, composed of Grant Stansbury and Fred H. Hunter, stated that a similar resolution had been adopted by the organization at their last meeting and that they would co-operate with Lacombe in any way possible.

Copies of the petition are to be sent to the Federal Government at Ottawa and to the banks, said the chairman.

Z. Y. Kars, president of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce, was a guest speaker and chose as his subject, "The Signs of the Times."

Town Prepares Parking Lot For Shoppers

To provide facilities for shoppers in Lacombe, the Town Council is preparing a parking lot one block west of Park's Garage, near the intersection of the main street and the new street. The lot is being leveled off at the present time and drive-ins constructed. It is expected that a large floodlight will be installed to provide plenty of light for automobile drivers.

Work on the lot is being pushed and is hoped to open it for cars within a short time.

TWO TEACHERS RESIGN FROM LOCAL STAFF

The resignation of Miss Ruby Lockyer and Alec Penman from the local school teaching staff were accepted "with deep regret" by the School Board when the regular monthly meeting was held Monday night. It was decided that R. Warren, principal of the school, would be the presiding examiner at the forthcoming June examinations.

Ancient Ambulance Takes Its Last Ride

For years the pride and joy of the residents of Lacombe and district, the model "1917" Ford ambulance, constructed long before Webster had ever heard of the word "streamlining," is to be wrecked. The ambulance was purchased in 1917, and a cost of $1900 was laid on the dotted line by W. F. Brett, then owner of the Lacombe Funeral Home, for the motor and chassis alone. Weeks of work in building a body suitable for an ambulance was put on the car by Joe Jamieson, and a completed ambulance-bearer, in the latest apportionment of (1919) was ready for service. The engine boasted a self-starter, a marvel car innovation of 1919, and with an electric horn, lights, et al, gave an up-to-the-minute ambulance service to the residents of this district up to July 10, 1931. The body was constructed of quarter-sawn oak and was built more for longevity than for style, to judge by modern tastes. W. G. Sage was the first intrepid Lacombe citizen to tackle the job of mastering the speed demon of Lacombe on its first trial run, and excitement ran high throughout the town as the news was spread that the old ambulance had reached a speed of twenty miles per hour. But the former monarch has fallen.

W. L. Ingraham Seriously Injured; Gored by Bull

Throat Slit When 3-Year-Old Holstein "Tut" Bull Charged Well-Known Farmer

W. L. Ingraham, 43-year-old farmer of the Iowa district, is progressing favorably in the Community Hospital here after being gored by a bull on his farm Saturday. Mr. Ingraham was seriously injured when the Holstein bull ripped his throat, damaging his windpipe, and knocking him off five teeth.

Mr. Ingraham, along with his wife and hired man, Frank Crowley, were crossing the pasture coming in from the field Saturday noon, when the bull attacked. Mr. Ingraham was knocked down and his throat slit from ear to ear by the animal, which had been considered a pet. Mrs. Ingraham immediately seized the dog onto the bull, which was driven from the prostrate man.

The hired man, along with Mrs. Ingraham and a neighbor, Howard Kish, carried Mr. Ingraham to the house, where Dr. Locke attended the injuries and ordered immediate removal to the Lacombe and District Hospital.

The injured man's throat is torn and the windpipe lacerated, besides five teeth being knocked out. A tube was inserted in his throat to enable him to breathe. The bull, according to Mrs. Ingraham, has been a quiet animal up to about three weeks ago, when it charged Mr. Ingraham once, but did no damage.

Mr. Ingraham is a prominent farmer and an old-timer of the Iowa district. He is secretary of the Lincoln rural telephone company and a trustee of the Meadowbrook School District. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Ingraham of Lacombe and has three small children, the oldest five years of age and the youngest a baby of twelve months.

A resolution to be sent the Provincial Government was approved, requesting action to prevent the closing of bank branches in Lacombe.

The E. J. Casey Shows, which carry several good riding devices and shows, have been booked for the midway, which will be much superior to that of recent years. A softball contest has been decided on for any teams wishing to compete in Lacombe and district and teams from Blackfalds, Clive, Bentley and Hinton are likely to enter, together with other teams in the surrounding district. Prizes of $25 will be offered, as follows: First Prize, $15; Second Prize, $10; Third Prize, $5, for the teams winning in their respective order.

Sports for children will be drawn up for Saturday afternoon, open to children in Lacombe and surrounding country. A dance will be held in the Central Alberta Pavilion on Friday night, which will be interspersed with novelty acts, and on Saturday night a jivey dance will take place. Watch for further announcements.

One Hundred Bulls Sold for Average Price of $90.65

Top Price of $275 Paid for Two-Year-Old Hereford Grand Champion Bull; Over 1000 Turn Out to Watch the Bidding

One hundred bulls brought an average price of $90.65 at the annual Bull Sale held by the Central Alberta Cattle Breeders' Association in the Pavilion Thursday of last week. The highest single price was paid for a Hereford two-year-old bull, judged Grand Champion in its class, which brought $275 to its owner, J. W. Hurty of Sedgewick. J. A. McDougall of Winfield was the buyer. Buyers from all points in Alberta and from Vancouver, Grand Forks and Whitecourt, in B.C., attended the sale. Bidding was slow, on the whole, and Auctioneers C. F. Danforth and J. W. Durno worked hard to obtain fair prices for the animals entered. Close to 1000 persons banded up in the Pavilion to watch the animals and bidding throughout the afternoon.

Thomas Henderson entered the Grand Champion in the Aberdeen Angus class, while the reserve champion was won by an entry of J. G. McCullough of Bluffton. Both these animals brought $155 each, the highest price paid in this class. The Aberdeen Angus entry list was made up of 14 bulls, selling for a gross total of $1415, an average of $101.07.

Hereford Class
In the Hereford class, 30 bulls were sold for an average price of $110.85, a gross sale of $3325.50. The grand champion was taken by J. W. Barry of Sedgewick, while E. L. Reynolds of Clive entered the reserve champion. The grand champion sold for the highest price of the sale—$275, while the reserve champion brought $125.

By far the largest class, the Shorthorn bulls, 56 of which were entered, averaged only $72.23. The Alberta Dept. of Agriculture at Olds entered the Grand Champion of this class, and the reserve champion was entered by N. D. Lalimer of Bowden.

Average Price Down
The gross average price of the sale, $90.65, was $23.57 below the $114.16 average for the 90 bulls sold at the sale last year. Comparing the average prices for the 1937 and 1938 sales in the three breeds of bulls sold are as follows:

Average prices: 1937	1938
Herefords	$94.56
Shorthorns	$72.23
Aberdeens	$110.85
Aberdeen Angus	$110.07
D. F. Gisholm and Jesse Fraser	looked after the clerking of the sale, with Bill Burr, Lawrence Edmonds and Jim Harrington acted as assistants.

Mrs. W. Newton read a paper entitled "A Summary of the Law Relating to Minors," which briefly told the story of the progress of civilization as seen in the advances made in the laws relating to children.

The executive and directors were authorized to make arrangements for a picnic during August. No meetings will be held in the vacation season, where the guests will gather for the opening fair meeting at the home of Mrs. R. Hoppus the first Saturday in September.

Suffers Broken Leg When Kicked

Gabe Harvard of the Spring Valley District is a patient in the Lacombe and District Community Hospital as a result of being kicked in the leg by a horse about a week ago. Immediately after the accident, Gabe went to his work, but the pain became so intense he was taken to the hospital, where it was found that the front bone in his leg had been splintered so that part of it had to be removed. He has now been released from the hospital.

Two Men Arrested For Calgary Theft

A four and one-half hour search through the brush and farm land east of Lacombe ended at 10:30 a.m. Tuesday when local police, aided by residents of the Town, apprehended two men, accused of stealing a car from Calgary. The two men gave their names as Joe Hector and Ralph Morris, and warrants have been sworn out in Calgary for their arrest. A third man, believed to have been riding in the car with the two accused, has not yet been apprehended.

The search started early Tuesday morning when Constable C. Mosier signalled the two men to stop, and when they failed to do so, pursued them in a command vehicle. The men fled, and the police officer followed them a short distance north of Lacombe and immediately searched on the east side of the road for the men. Failing to find them, he returned to Lacombe, and shortly after a band of several Lacombe residents, led by the two local police officers, were sent to the scene to find the men. They were finally found on the east highway after the police had received word that the men had been seen in the Central School vicinity.

Both men have been turned over to the custody of the R.C.M.P. A search is being made for the third man.

Reception Held Thursday in Honor Of Newlyweds

On Thursday afternoon and evening, June 2, Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Carr opened their home for a large attended reception in honor of their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Basil O. Godfrey, whose marriage took place on May 2. Daintily festive were the table appointments with a delicate shade of pink and white, braided streamers suspended from the ceiling and the pendent from a centre bell to the four corners of the table, which was fragrant with a lovely centre of pieces of apple blossoms and vases of white lilies. Bleeding hearts, poppies and masses of mauve lilies provided a beautiful background for the rooms in which the guests were received.

To receive, Mrs. Carr was graciously charming in a wine colored gown of georgette and lace, and Mrs. Godfrey looked very smart in a figured chiffon crepe of wine color.

Assisted the Hostess
The wives of the Elders and Managers of St. Andrew's Church were among those who assisted the hostess. Attending the door during the afternoon was Mrs. G. E. DeLong, and in the evening Mrs. M. L. Waters, the latter having been Mrs. Godfrey's commercial teacher during the past six months.

Mrs. T. Wilkes, Mrs. C. E. Todd, Mrs. E. L. Misener, Mrs. P. W. Pratt, Mrs. F. E. McLeod and Mrs. G. Edmonds, poured tea, and Mrs. H. E. Wilson, Mrs. D. Locke, Mrs. R. L. Ramsay, Mrs. A. Gilmour and Mrs. George Hinchey gave assistance in the dining room, where the guests were ushered by Mrs. W. C. Sweet and Mrs. J. Fraser. Others assisting were Mrs. A. Piltman, Mrs. J. N. B. Macdonald and H. Watt. Two sisters of Mr. Carr, Mrs. B. B. Gale of Calgary and Mrs. Frank Montgomery of Wetaskiwin, were also present to welcome the guests.

Many handsome and useful gifts were presented to the young couple, who expect to take up their residence in Vancouver shortly.

Valley Oil for British Use?

ONCE more the serious oil marketing problems of Turner Valley have reached prominence in the daily papers as the Petroleum Producers Association endeavor to obtain a suspension of the present 30 per cent protracted production. Latest developments show that officials are considering sending a committee to England to interview the British Admiralty with a view to interesting the War Office in the oil production of Turner Valley.

The committee will have the best product to sell. Of this there is no doubt, as the gasoline extracted from Turner Valley is said to be of exceptional quality for aviation use in view of the high octane and gravity rating of valley crude. If the committee can interest the War Office in the production of the largest oil field in the British Empire, it will mean boom days for Turner Valley again.

One of the greatest difficulties to be overcome is the transportation question. To ship the total production of Turner Valley to the coast by rail would be prohibitive in cost at the present freight rates. Furthermore, once at the coast, a long trek awaits the oil steamer before the cargo finds its destination in England. One of the main doubts in the minds of Britain's brass-hats would be the impossibility of keeping this route open in time of war.

There are many factors to be taken into consideration, and the committee will have a large number of difficulties to surmount to convince the Admiralty of the plausibility of using Turner Valley oil for Britain's sea and air fleet. The best wishes of the entire Dominion, however, will travel with this committee in their mission.

Protect Our Forests

FOREST fires are again raising havoc with the great forest reserves of northern Alberta. Annually millions and millions of dollars worth of lumber and fuel go up in smoke throughout the entire north country. Each fire leaves its scar on the land for years to come. Trees which have taken thirty or forty years to reach their maturity are consumed at a gulp by hungry flames which have no respect for age.

In the latest outbreaks, officials have hinted at possible incineration, giving as a possible motive, the payment of wages to unemployed men to help fight the fires. If there is any foundation whatsoever to these accusations, no effort should be spared to lock behind bars the men who would so willfully damage and decrease Alberta's natural resources for a few days' pay. If on the other hand these accusations are unfounded, the authorities should spare no effort to find the causes of the present outbreaks. If campers leaving behind burning embers are to blame, those campers should be arrested and prosecuted; if it is the work of careless smokers tossing matches into dry leaves, action should be taken against them.

No effort should be spared by the Government officials to probe into the causes of these fires—because these fires are robbing valuable property—property belonging to the people of this Province.

Dictatorship or Freedom

TODAY Europe is realizing the results of excessive nationalism. Canadians find it hard to realize the hatred and bitterness which can be engendered through the indiscriminate use of propaganda; propaganda over the radio, through the newspapers and in all periodicals. The dictators of Europe are everlastingly pounding into the minds of their nationals that all other countries are to be hated and feared; that any other race than their own is beneath contempt.

Having sown these seeds for the past five, ten and fifteen years, the dictators are beginning to reap their crop—a crop which consists of nothing so much as a nationalism which is fanatical in its extremes. It is this excessive nationalism which will be hard to control in future years—for with the coming of a future generation, this nationalistic feeling will run even higher. The children of today are being trained for the armies of tomorrow.

Fairy tales are being re-written; school readers lauding the country's nationals and placing high on a pedestal the God of War—all to teach the generation of future years to be much more fanatical than their parents. It is this training of young minds; this forming of ranks for war which Canadians find it hard to realize. When we, in this country, remember the complaints when cadet corps were established in schools and the consequent cancellation (in most schools) because the training was too "war-like," may we thank our lucky stars that we may live under the Union Jack, where a man may act, do and speak as he please.

Through the Eyes of a Country Woman

By BRIDGET

A group of women were discussing the definition of "success," and one member, slightly older than the rest of us, said, "I think most of you ladies here are successful." It seems a strange thing to say of just a bunch of not too spry women. The world would not have judged one of these women as successful. But, I believe her statement was correct, for she was measuring success with a yardstick composed of happiness and achievement. These women had set out to be good wives and mothers, and they had done their job well, therefore they could consider themselves a success in their chosen sphere. Money was not the measuring stick used by any of the women present; they had made happy homes for their husbands and children and had endeavored to do their duty to the best of their ability; what further success could they look for in their restricted circle?

All happiness and success are the complement of each other; you cannot consider a person successful who is not happy, and yet, it is very difficult to be happy without being a success.

Both success and happiness are too elusive for absolute definition; no two people agree on a definition of happiness; and few on one of success. Whereas some measure success and happiness (?) by money; others will declare the acme of happiness is obtained by personal things, like a hot bath, a night in June, clean sheets, an old car, a new car, perfect health, the ability to help others, etc., and thousands of other widely diverse things.

Haven't you ever heard the remark: "He is a very successful man, but he is not happy"? I cannot see how this can be possible; how can one be successful, except monetarily, unless happy? Of course, in this time and age, money is all-powerful, and awfully necessary; but is it the all-in-all of happiness and success? Out of curiosity I looked up the dictionary meaning of success and found, "act of succeeding," "the prosperous termination of anything attempted." That simplifies things somewhat, doesn't it? We can all be a success, as long as we stick to our jobs and bring them to fruition. "Happy" is defined as "lucky," "successful," "enjoying pleasure," etc., etc.; don't you think the two words are almost interchangeable?

As a rule, happiness is only realized retrospectively; by that I mean, we seldom, if ever, realize at a given moment that we are happy; we seem to have a bashful reluctance against admitting pleasure; but, looking back, moments stand out of which we can say, "I was so happy then," or, "this or that gave me so much happiness."

The object of life is, after all, not simply happiness, although we catch glimpses of it now and again; it is, like many other things worth having, not readily found by those who make a business of securing it. By that I refer to those people with more money than sense, who rush from one thing to another, theatres, night clubs, and the like, where they imagine they can buy happiness, and they find what? A sick headache, a feeling of satiety, an inexpressible boredom.

Nature can give more happiness than man-made pleasures; is there anything more "happy sounding" than a bird trilling its psalm of praise to God while flying straight out into the great unknown blue of heaven.

Most experiences in life, like wine, gain and ripen with time; unpleasantness fades, leaving a residue of happiness.

Success will sometimes wonder at anyone over forty remarking that only now are they realizing happiness; youth has no set yardstick by which to measure happiness, and it is forever seeking after it, like the Golden Fleece, and feeling that they are being cheated of something. Middle age has learned the fallacy of seeking happiness, and succeeds in gaining it through memories, and everyday contacts. What greater happiness is there than the knowledge of a need in a beloved someone, that only ourselves can meet and fulfill?

What a travesty, success measured by any yardstick can be, when obtained too late to be shared by one's life partner. Old age, however, succeeds in riches and honors, is a very pathetic thing when lived alone. Those who ruthlessly push forward in search of money, and more money; power, and more power, regardless of the poverty and misery they cause, can hardly be accounted successful, except by those whose vision is obscured by worship of things material.

Success is within the reach of all, however humble. A mother of a large family, all of whom look to her for their inspiration and daily needs, is as successful in her sphere of life, as the monied financier is in his, and probably just as happy. Happiness is within ourselves, and success is but the achievement of our dearest aims; at least that is my humble definition of success, with which some of you may not agree; for, as I said previously, few agree on any set definition of that elusive thing called success.

A History of the Lacombe Golf and Country Club

By JACK MCCAUGHERTY

From the steps of building up the course in the years 1924-25 emerged the first active season of the Lacombe Golf and Country Club. In 1926 the Number One meeting was held in the Town Hall and a good attendance of members turned out to yach for their support of the new organization. Fees for the season were fixed at $10 for men, $5 for ladies and $5 for students under 18, while green fees were made 25c for one round. The opening season was hailed as a grand success.

Again the following year the club got away to a grand start as the second annual meeting was held on the 27th day of April. New officers took over duties as F. E. McLeod was elected president; Dr. Locke, vice-president; and A. Belcher, secretary-treasurer. Committees were drawn up to start a membership drive and to establish the rules and handicaps, as well as for entertainment and such other purposes.

The playing fees for 1927 were boosted over the preceding year, with charges of: Adults, Males $15, Females $10; two in one house, $20; Juniors, $5; Outside Members, Male, $10, and Female, $5. The fees were made payable by the 30th of May. Wm. Newton's services were acquired for the season as caretaker of the course.

The financial statement for the year balanced, leaving $74.90 in cash, but outstanding accounts of $608.96.

The course, still in its early stage of existence, brought down the curtain on its second successful season, leaving members to be forward in the time when they would once again be swinging their clubs, playing for higher laurels and lower scores.

Spring Valley

(From Our Own Correspondent)

SPRING VALLEY.—Miss Helen Randall is home from the General Hospital nursing staff on a visit.

You should see the Spring Valley hall since the leaders got there giving it a thorough cleaning.

We understand that Mrs. Walt Keith is home from the hospital, where she was taken the last of last week. We do not know the particulars but hope her stay there was beneficial.

Beginning June 19th and thereafter during the summer months at any rate, the Sunday School and preaching services will begin at 11:30 a.m. instead of at 11:00 o'clock at Spring Valley. This is to enable Mr. Kettys to reach his job in the Valley morning on time, as they have decided to hold their services in the hall at Joffre each Sunday at 11:00 a.m. from that date.

We are advised that the camp at 6th Lake for C.G.I.F. girls will be held this year from July 4th to 12th.

Mrs. Randall of Lacombe was a guest last week of Mr. and Mrs. Nichol Gray.

MIRROR.—Mrs. C. E. Hardie spent the week-end in Edmonton. On Saturday, June 4, Dr. Aitken addressed the definition of success, with which some of you may not agree; for, as I said previously, few agree on any set definition of that elusive thing called success.

Mrs. G. Murphy left last Monday for Vancouver, where she will make her future home. On Thursday, June 2, in the Town Hall, some 20 of Miss E. Ditzler's pupils gave a recital, which was attended by a large crowd.

Car Accident
C. Buchanan, while driving H. Chapman's car at an excessive speed, ran into the tracks. He was taken into custody by Constable Gear of Bashaw.

Scoutmaster J. Henderson took the Mirror Troop to the Narrows to camp. A baseball game was held here between Alix High School and Mirror High School, Mirror winning 7-0.

The Rebeck Lodge entertained their friends at a card party on their seventh anniversary. Honors were won by Mrs. C. Ray and O. Vreeland.

Do You Know?

sixty-seven-year-old resident of Lacombe? Mr. Pocock was born in Hertfordshire, England, close to the Grand Junction Canal. He received his education there, and upon leaving school took an apprenticeship in coachbuilding. Shortly after, about the age of 23, he travelled to Australia to join three brothers, coming back after spending five years "down under."

For the next few years he worked for his dad in a blacksmith's shop, coming to Canada in 1912. Mr. Pocock was a passenger on the S.S. Montrose en route to St. Johns when the Titanic went down. Although the Montrose received the distress calls, it was too late to go to the rescue of the stricken ship. He started a blacksmith's shop at Botha, near Stettler, where he stayed only three months before coming in the same year to Lacombe, where he did odd jobs around town for Frank Vickerson and G. T. Jackson before starting work for the C.P.R. For the next 24 years Mr. Pocock worked for the C.P.R. here, retiring from his position two years ago.

He was married in England before coming to Canada, and from that union there are five children, Herbert of Lacombe; Albert, residing in B.C.; Mrs. T. Gilling, Calgary; Mrs. H. Carriag, Edmonton, and Mrs. George Schwendtmann.

Toronto's reputation as The God has travelled far and wide. During the floor show at a night club, the visitor from the City White Way inquired of his host: "Is this place inside the city limits?"

The financial statement for the year balanced, leaving $74.90 in cash, but outstanding accounts of $608.96.

The course, still in its early stage of existence, brought down the curtain on its second successful season, leaving members to be forward in the time when they would once again be swinging their clubs, playing for higher laurels and lower scores.

Q.—How does Life Insurance invest the millions of dollars of policyholders' savings?

A.—In many worth-while enterprises for the benefit of all Canadian people.

Q.—What are the principal investments?

A.—Government bonds—municipal debentures—first mortgages on homes and farms—and other investments authorized by law.

Q.—How do these Life Insurance investments benefit Canada?

A.—They help to build homes, schools and good roads—improve farm property—extend transportation systems—finance industries—and construct local improvements.

WHY DOES ANYBODY
BORROW FROM A BANK?★ ★
WHY does anybody borrow money?

Here is the answer: Usually to make a profit or to use the money for his advantage.

Be the borrower a farmer, marketing organization, lumberman, miner, fisherman, rancher, manufacturer—none ever borrows from a bank and pays interest except to gain a benefit outweighing the interest charges.

Every Canadian dollar represents tangible wealth already produced, or wages paid for services rendered.

Every Canadian dollar issued can be described accurately as to purpose, as a wealth-producing, wage-paying, profit-seeking dollar.

Occasionally some borrowed dollars become temporarily deadweight debts—perhaps you suffer a loss for a season through drought or other natural calamity. But with a better season, better prices and brighter business, the loan has a chance to recover its losses.

"I borrow $1,000 from the bank, paying interest because the bank is rendering me a service," one man instances. He goes on thus:

"Why do I borrow the $1,000? To use in a business deal and make a profit."

"My deal concluded successfully, I repay the bank and have a profit of say $100, which I put to my credit in the bank."

"The bank has back its $1,000 and interest, and I have $100 I didn't have before."

"Multiply that borrowing of mine, my use of the money, my repayment and my profit, by many borrowers, day after day, and you see what is happening as a continuous revolving process throughout the year in the business world."

A farmer borrows for seed, cultivation or harvesting; a fisherman borrows for bait, boat or wages; a manufacturer borrows against raw materials being fabricated, to pay wages to finish and market his goods—but none of these borrows except in the hope of profit to himself, in supplying the needs of others.

Banking is not mysterious.

A farmer's co-operative marketing organization uses bank credit so that the farmer may get cash for his crop at the elevator without waiting for it to reach Liverpool.

A merchant borrows from the bank and is enabled to pay his bills early, take advantage of discounts, and pass part of his saving on to his customers.

A small farmer with 20 hogs borrowed $50 for feed, paid $1.75 interest and was enabled to sell his hogs for $100 more than he would have got on an earlier market. His net profit was $48.75. That is an authentic case. Here is another:

A hog-raiser on a large scale paid $100 interest on a loan for feed. He writes us that he made a net profit of nearly $2,000.

These are instances of the kind of service bank credit, exchanged for individual credit, performs as an everyday routine, in Canada. Any community can supply scores of similar examples.

What is money? Coinage, Bank of Canada notes, bank notes, deposits.

Chartered banks now issue their notes up to a legal limit of 85 per cent of their paid-up capital. Yearly this is being reduced and the right of note-issue as steadily vested in the Bank of Canada.

A chartered bank's notes are the first charge on its assets. In case of trouble they must be paid off before a single cent can be paid on deposits or on any other debts owed by the bank. To make doubly sure that notes will be redeemed, each bank pays into a fund held by the Minister of Finance, an amount of cash equal to five per cent of the average of its bank notes outstanding. This is called the "Bank Circulation Redemption Fund." The total of this fund is available for the purpose of redeeming the outstanding notes of any bank.

Notes of the Bank of Canada are money—legal tender—cash—that Bank's notes and deposits are backed (April 30, 1938) by 53.37 per cent of gold and silver bullion and foreign exchange.

Notes of the chartered banks, too, are money—their promises to pay; every dollar backed by more than twenty dollars of assets. They are redeemable, on demand, in cash.

Your deposit in a chartered bank also is money—you can buy things with it. It arose from your labour, production and thrift. It is redeemable in cash. It is the measure of your real wealth. You may make payments by cheque upon it. When your cheque goes through the clearing house system, it must be met by the bank on which it is drawn. Any balances as between banks have to be settled in cash daily.

Your Canadian dollars are useful factors in a system that produces wealth for all of Canada.

Tees Tattle Tales

By TATTTLER

TEES.—Baseball during the past week's schedule went off fairly well. Sargent defeated Sallawood in one game. Tees vs. Nebraska game was cancelled because of the weather last Thursday. Sunday, Sargent defeated Nebraska 5-7. In a very good nine-inning game, the winning run coming in after two outs in the ninth. Monday night Tees invaded Sallawood and got the short end of a 14-7 score.

A carload of young people headed by Mr. Cunningham took in the well advertised picture show, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," at Red Deer on Thursday night.

D. Bruce McMillan, Social Credit member for this constituency, left Sunday evening to take part in the Saskatchewan going bad for the boys down there when they call on Bruce. He seems to be the "ace in the hole," and if they don't win now the cause will be hopeless.

Mrs. McMillan and daughters Catherine and Betty, Mrs. and Mrs. Glen Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Gay Meadows and daughter Dorothy, and Ken McDougall, were visitors to Lacombe over the week-end.

Chas. McDougall was a Calgary visitor over the week-end.

Petition Circulated
A petition to save our chartered banks from excessive taxation is being circulated throughout the district this week. Mr. and Mrs. Gatz of the Four Square Gospel Church spent the past couple of weeks holding services and saving people in this district. How many of the services were attended this scribe cannot say, for "I wasn't there Charlie."

A dance was held Friday night—the music was good, the cats were good but the dancers were scarce.

'Twas a Big Surprise
Miss Margaret Anderson got quite a surprise the other evening when two carloads of aunts, uncles and cousins dropped in on her for a visit from Carmore and Wetaskiwin.

Mrs. W. A. Holworth and children, accompanied by Miss Lydia Kraft, left Sunday for a vacation at Sylvan Lake. They expect to be away until the end of this month.

The girls' softball club challenged the married men to a game of softball, which was played on Tuesday night. The actual report will have to come in next week if time can be found to figure out just what happened, so many runs came in and so many old guys were used to win the game that the official score and play-keeper is still in a quandary.

A scare was given to our residents the other night when a saddle horse, owned by Sy Ogilvie, was seen running sideways, dragging a bulky article which appeared to be a human body with a foot caught. On closer observation it turned out to be a sack of groceries and the puncher himself was on foot.

NOT THE VARIETY
Carl Henderson, New York, said in a talk on salesmanship. "In flattery and in everything else, a salesman can go too far. A pretty girl said to an energetic young salesman at a counter: 'I want some soap, please.' 'He looked at her closely, like a real beauty specialist. 'I would recommend,' he said, 'for a complexion that combines so delicately the lovely colors of the lily and the rose.' 'Excuse me,' the girl broke in, 'it isn't soft soap I want.'"

OIL PRICES PAID IN MONTANA
TURNER VALLEY

The price paid the oil producer in Turner Valley depends upon what happens in the State of Montana, according to evidence presented on behalf of the Alberta Government at a recent sitting of the Tariff Board of the Alberta Board of Public Utilities Commissioners, testified that he had recently visited Montana to study the situation in the oil fields there. Because Montana had lost its Canadian Prairie oil market to the Turner Valley, Mr. Cottle said, many of the producers there little by little had been driven out of the market at the moment. Those who have a market will not agree to share it with their less fortunate neighbors. Furthermore, production is exceeding requirements and consequently prices are unstable, without prospect of early improvement. The distress production is estimated by Mr. Cottle at 97,000 barrels per month.

"If prevailing prices in Montana fall much lower," Mr. Cottle said, "a further drop in prices in Turner Valley can be expected to meet competition at Saskatchewan and Manitoba refinery points."

Very Low Tariff
On Farm Implements
Says Lacombe Visitor

"The south country looks in great shape, the green grass giving evidence of the return of normal moisture conditions such as we have not had for at least ten years," said John Martin, Adv. Manager of the Massey-Harris Company, Limited, Toronto, when interviewed by a representative of the Lacombe Globe as he passed through town over the week-end. "Farmers are making good headway in getting in their seed, despite the catchy weather we have experienced these last few weeks, which is due, to a large extent, to the speedier equipment being used on the farms," he continued.

Mr. Martin, who has for the past month been visiting western Canada concerning Massey-Harris agents throughout the three western provinces, is optimistic regarding the future of the farmer. "Stocks of wheat in Canada have reached the lowest point in years and the marketing of the 1938 crop will not be encumbered by unwieldy surpluses. It now looks as though things have changed for the better, and that a brighter day has dawned for Canadian agriculture," he said.

Implement Duty Very Low
Referring to the present discussion re tariffs, Mr. Martin said: "Somehow or other there seems to be kept alive the idea that the tariff on implements is a very high one. As a matter of fact, the implement industry is one of the least protected industries in Canada. The tariff on farm implements is only 7½ per cent, and that rate is not paid on the retail price, but on the dutiable price set by the Excise Department, which really makes the actual duty paid less than 4 per cent on the price of a binder to the Canadian farmer."

"It is also to be noted that all tractors are duty free, which incidentally results in no tractors being manufactured by Canada; yet about half the entire purchases for farm equipment last year were tractors."

When A Joke Is Not A Joke

Everyone enjoys a joke now and then. But here are good jokes and poor ones. We think it's a poor joke—

When some woman blushes with embarrassment.

When it is based upon a rumor or an untruth.

When it must be told in an undertone.

When some heart carries away an ache.

When something sacred is made to appear common.

When a man's weakness provides the cause of laughter.

When it is provoked by malice or hatred.

When profanity is required to make it funny.

When a little child is brought to tears.

When everyone can't join in the laughter.

Board of Trade Petitions Govt.

Times." The thought came to him, he said, from articles which he read in glancing through an old newspaper of 1910 or 1911.

Suggests Joining Forces

Mr. Cairns pictured the power and influence which might be enjoyed by Chambers of Commerce and Boards of Trade if they would join forces and work together for the good of the community, the province and the nation. Without political or religious affiliations, these organizations were free to work for the benefit of the entire population. He told of some of the activities of the Edmonton Chamber of Commerce, among which was the presentation of a brief to the Howell Commission.

He said they were trying to create interest in a Provincial Council formed of all Chambers of Commerce and Boards of Trade in the Province, which could make a tremendous influence on public affairs and assist in finding a solution to the unsettled conditions which exist today. At the conclusion of his talk, local members voted unanimously to have representation on such a council, and the speaker was given a hearty vote of thanks.

Other guests present were: J. Ivan McKay, Div. Supt. of the C.P.R., Edmonton, and Ivan C. Bardwell of Vancouver, B.C.
